

Fairfield Technologies Inc. Opens New Virginia Office in Chantilly

Chantilly, VA – January 2, 2007 --Fairfield Technologies Inc. (FTI) announces its new Virginia office located in suburban Chantilly. The new facility houses FTI's administrative, marketing, business development, and human resources groups. The office offers additional office and meeting space for project personnel located in the Virginia and Washington, DC commuting region, and will also serve as FTI's primary corporate training facility.

"Our Chantilly facility gives us great flexibility to respond to client needs and provide both permanent and temporary office space for consulting and engineering personnel," noted Kenneth Fried, FTI President. "With this facility we are ready to grow yet again in 2007."
