

Fairfield Technologies Partners with DHi on ONR MATOC Contract

Chantilly, VA- September 28, 2007--Fairfield Technologies Inc. (FTI) has partnered with Defense Holdings Inc. (DHi) on its Office of Naval Research (ONR) Multiple-Award Task Order Contracts (MATOC) program contract. The MATOC program provides approved vendors for professional technical, engineering, business, management, administrative, and IT support services for authorized ONR ordering offices in support of Navy and Marine Corps Science and Technology. A complete listing of services offered by FTI under DHi's contract may be found under contract vehicles listed at www.fairfieldtech.com.

"We're pleased to work with DHi to support the ONR programs under MATOC," said Kenneth Fried, FTI president. "FTI's capabilities are well matched for this vehicle and backed with current and past performance on similar DoD engagements."
